

COVISION MEDICAL TECHNOLOGIES QUALITY POLICY

- The management practices and employ work activities of Covision Medical Technologies shall, without exception, promote on time delivery of products and services which are consistently in conformance with the product specification.
- The company is committed to a policy of forward planning to achieve “Right First Time” and to a policy of continuous improvement in all business related activities throughout the supply chain.
- Effective management reviews will be established to plan and achieve these continual improvements in quality, service, cost and technology by the identification of defined objectives, goals and targets.
- Commitment to compliance with the requirements and effectiveness of quality management system shall be achieved through staff training and recruitment of employees who fit the culture of our industry.

Stephen Fox
Managing Director